Israel, Lewis VanWinkle, his son, presented the diplomas to the graduates Jephthah; Estelle Bicknell, his daughter.

Many have been watching and waiting anxiously to see what the outcome of the first year would be. The question has been asked and re-asked, "Does it pay to have a graded school in Bera?" Those who were present at the closing exercises and heard the address and learned of the honor achieved by its first graduating class realized the answer to that question "It does pay." There is no better way of judging a tree than by its fruits, and the record made by the first graduating class which took the highest honors in the County with no average below 85 per cent is evidence of good fruit.

CLOSING EXERCISES OF THE BERA GRADUATED SCHOOL

Friday, May 21st, marked the close of the first term in the history of the Bera Graded School.

The program consisted of essays and biographies by the graduating class, which were as follows:

The Purpose of the Boy Scout Movement, by Obal Wilson.
The Life of Abraham Lincoln, by Mary Hatfield.

My Ideas of An Ideal Home, by Virgie Wynn.
The Life of Daniel Boone, by Versa Wilson.

Our Pioneer Mothers, by Dahlia Hughes.

The commencement address was then given by Professor Smith which all enjoyed, and an enthusiastic talk was given by Dr. Best, who

BASE BALL
Paint Lick, May 22—Whites Station defeated Paint Lick on the latter's ground in a very interesting game. The ground was muddy, which made fast playing impossible.

The feature of the game came in the eighth inning with the score 2 to 1 against Whites Station, with two on bases when Canter made a hit. Parish following with a three-sacker, winning the game.

Hits—off Farris, 12; off Maupin, 8. Batteries—Whites Station: Maupin and Flanery; Paint Lick: Farris and Rouse.

Score by Innings: total. Whites Sta. 0 0 0 0 1 0 3 0 4. Paint Lick 1 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 2. Umpires—Wyatt and Woods.
